

Edna (Eddi) Woodbridge audio file (recording made 17.2.2019 by Nathalie Hetherington)

Eddi Woodbridge (née Luffman) was born in Sherborne in 1937 and lived in Milborne Port for all of her childhood until 1958.

Running Order (approximate minutes and seconds)

Start – school days

2.16 - Mickey Mouse gas mask!

2.50 - evacuees Leslie & Joyce Jones

5.27 - Number 10 Manor Road and a caring community

6.21 - family in the village

7.27 - changes over the years

8.05 - the library

10.23 - grammar school

10.54 - first cars in the village & fun with paper deliveries!

12.14 - childhood friendships

13.39 - memories of the glove factories

14.22 - 'White Road'

15.06 - war-time memories

16.14 - rationing & then sweets!

16.56 - Church Choir shenanigans!

19.22 - Kingsbury bats

20.04 - the station & rail travel

21.07 - the Luffmans & emigration – “a funny bunch”!

23.09 - Ensor factory fire

25.00 - childhood freedoms

25.49 - roller-skates

26.40 - more evacuees & George Long’s return

The photographs below: Eddi aged about 4 with her older sister; Eddi aged about 10; Eddi on the left aged about 11 with friends (Mary Clothier is at the front on the right); Eddi is second from left aged about 16 with friends (Mary Clothier is second from right).

