

Jennifer Horner audio file (date unknown)

Jennifer Horner was headmistress at the county school from 1966-1989 (infants and then primary)

Running Order (approximate minutes and seconds)

Start – early days in the job

1.19 – early school rivalries!

2.28 – amalgamation plans and considerations

3.40 – headmistresses of a school on a split site!

4.23 – two schools become one

5.05 – the curriculum

6.00 – computers arrive

6.45 – basic skills & tools

7.25 – heating the school

9.46 – the field in front of the school – quite a different setting

10.49 – how the school grew

11.18 – all children included

12.08 – the Elizabethan pageant

13.05 – school uniform

2.50 - evacuees Leslie & Joyce Jones

5.27 - Number 10 Manor Road and a caring community

6.21 - family in the village

7.27 - changes over the years

8.05 - the library

10.23 - grammar school

10.54 - first cars in the village & fun with paper deliveries!

12.14 - childhood friendships

13.39 - memories of the glove factories

14.22 - 'White Road'

15.06 - war-time memories

16.14 - rationing & then sweets!

16.56 - Church Choir shenanigans!

19.22 - Kingsbury bats

20.04 - the station & rail travel

21.07 - the Luffmans & emigration – “a funny bunch”!

23.09 - Ensor factory fire

25.00 - childhood freedoms

25.49 - roller-skates

26.40 - more evacuees & George Long's return

The photographs below: Eddi aged about 4 with her older sister; Eddie aged about 10; Eddi on the left aged about 11 with friends (Mary Clothier is at the front on the right); Eddi is second from left aged about 16 with friends (Mary Clothier is second from right).

